Proof of age before the king's council at Westminster, Sunday in three weeks of Easter, viz. the eve of SS. Philip and James, 1 Edw. I.

Brother Peter prior of H(enton) says that George de Cantilupo was born at Bergeveny on Good Friday 35 or 36 Hen. III., for he was chaplain to William de Cantilupo, grandfather of the said George, and when the said George was born was engaged about the execution of the said William's will, who died the year of George's birth or in the preceding year; and the report of the county is that the said George is 21 on Good Friday last.

* So given in the Calendar printed in 1806, but not now to be found; perhaps torn off from this membrane.

Brother John master of the hospital of St. Mark, Billeswyk, without Bristoll, says he knows the said George was 21 on Good Friday last, from the report of the country, and because he was ordained to the priesthood 25 years ago, and the said George's father died at Calveston 18 years ago, and the said George was born three years before at Bergeveny: he is sure of this because he came from the parts of Calveston.

Alan de Wauton (knight) agrees, and says the said George was 22 on Good Friday last, as he understands by the common report of the country, &c.

Peter de Bruges says the said George was born twenty-one years ago last Good Friday, which he knows because he was then at Bridgwater (Bruges Walteri) with the constable of the castle, who held the hundred court when the report came of the said George's birth, and one or two years after King Henry crossed into Gascony.

Robert de Trillek agrees, and knew it by inspection of the chronicles in the priory of Bergeney, and he heard men of Bergeveny disputing about it, who at last agreed as above.

Thomas Creyk agrees, and knew it because Anastasia his wife was first married to Richard Wason in that year, who had by her a son who is now canon at Briweton, and who was born on the feast of All Saints twenty-one years ago, and the said George on Good Friday following.

Robert Blundel (knight) knew it well because he was sent as messenger to Bergeveny by Sir Th. Corbet to seek his lord's land of Lydeham, and on Wednesday of Easter week found the wife of the said William lying in childbed with the said George.

John de Baskervill (knight) agrees, and knew it by the relation of knights and others of the country.

Henry Murdak (knight) says the same.

John Faukes of Dertemuth agrees, and knew it by inspection of the chronicles of Totnes priory.

William de Merle (knight) agrees, and knew it by the oath of Sir Adam de Gurdun and others who were of the household (familia) of William de Cantiluppo the father of the said George.

John de Pycheford (knight) agrees, adding that he espoused a kinswoman of the said George, viz. the daughter of William de Ebroicis, and diligently enquired the age of the said George from Sir Adam de Gurdun and Sir Robert de Tregoz and others of the said household.

37. FULK SON OF WARIN.

Proof of age. Thursday after St. Mark the Evangelist, 1 Edw. I.

Nicholas de Hanrede, knight, says the said Fulk will be 22 on the day of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross next, for in king Henry's 34th year he was sheriff of Berks, and on Wednesday after the said feast he was at Wanetinge in the house of Fulk, the said Fulk's father, when news came that his wife had borne him a son, who was this Fulk, for he had no other.

Geoffrey de Wauncy, knight, agrees from the common relation of the country, and of his father Geoffrey, who at Michaelmas after that feast took a farm near Wanetinge for a term of twenty-two years, which will end on Michaelmas day next.

Robert de Whytefeud, knight, believes him to be about 22, for nearly twenty-two years ago he was in the house of Ralph le Botiller at Wemme, where a great number of knights and ladies had been invited, and it was then said that the said Fulk's mother was not there because she was pregnant.

Peter de Grave says the same, for there was discord between him and Fulk father of this Fulk, which was accorded at Wanetinge, and then came news of the birth of this Fulk, and the father and friends were much congratulated because all his other children (pueri) were girls.

Peter de Ossinton says the same, and knows it by the death of his mother, for he was at Wanetinge seeking necessities for her funeral, when news came that a male child was born to Fulk the father, who should be his heir, and who was this Fulk.

William le Clothmongere says the same, for he married his wife on the feast of the Translation of St. Thomas the Martyr twenty years ago, and then the same Fulk was 2 years old, excepting the term between the said feast and the Exaltation of the Holy Cross.

Walter le Waleys says the same, for he received his land of Henneye about the quinzaine of Easter twenty-two years ago, and the said Fulk was born at Whyntinton at the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross preceding; and he was in the fair at Waneting on the feast of St. Faith next after, when news came to him by Simon le Clerk of the said Fulk's birth.

Richard de Pavelly says the same, for eight days before the Nativity of the Blessed Mary twenty-two years ago, he came from the Holy Land, when a year before Louis king of France was taken by the enemies of the Cross of Christ at Damietta in the Holy Land, and on the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross within a fortnight of his return he was at Waneting when news came of the said Fulk's birth; and Emma his mother died on the feast of St. Andrew next following that feast.

John de Budyford says the same, for Margery his mother died on the feast of the Translation of St. Thomas the Martyr twenty-two years ago, and at the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross following he was at Bristol when news came of the said Fulk's birth; and his father Jordan had the manor of Haukesbiri near that of Aleweston of the said Fulk's father, and was his counsellor.

Bartholomew de Erleye says the same, for at Easter twenty-one years ago died Giles de Erleye his father, and on the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross preceding he was with him when news came of the birth of the said Fulk.

Henry de Gopshull agrees, for Sarah de Grave his grandmother died on the feast of St. Faith twenty-two years ago, and he received her inheritance; and on Wednesday after the Exaltation of the Holy Cross he was at Wanetinge when news of the birth of the said Fulk came to him through William Pymor the father's messenger.

Walter son of Henry le Clerc of Waneting agrees, for he married his wife from the chamber of William earl of Ferrers, and had a daughter born twenty-two years ago, three days before the said Fulk was born at Whittington, as the said William Pymor related to him.

I.

C. Edw. I. File 3. (18.)

39. RICHARD DE SANCTO DIONISIO.

Writ (of certiorari), on the complaint of Richard de la Rokele, knight, that the escheator had taken into the king's hand the manor of Wokendon which he had demised to the said Richard for life only. 4 Feb. 1 Edw. I.

40. JOHN LE FERRUN, citizen of London.

Writ of plenius certiorari, on the complaint of Margery late the wife of the said John, that the escheator had taken into the king's hand the manor of Toppingho, Hatfeud Peverel and Borham, which had been assigned to her for the residue of a term. 17 July, 1 Edw. I.

ESSEX. Inq. Wednesday after St. Peter ad Vincula.

Toppingho. The manor was demised by Baldwin Fillol to the said John for twenty-four years by chirograph, and for greater security a charter of enfeoffment was delivered with condition that it should be restored at the end of the term if the agreements contained in the chirograph were observed by the said Baldwin and his heirs. And the said Baldwin hearing of the sickness of the said John, came and prayed him to restore the charter of enfeoffment, which he did, save that the said Baldwin granted that Margery wife of the said John should hold the remainder of the term of twenty-four years. So that the said John did not die seised of the manor in fee.

C. Edw. I. File 4. (2.)

43. JOHN SON OF HUGH DE VYVON[IA].

WILTS. Proof of age, 9 July, 1 Edw. I.

Henry Crok, knight, says the said John was born at Sellyng in co. Kent, of Petronilla de Vyvon on Whitsunday 36 Henry III, and added that he knew this because Hugh de Vyvonie the said John's father was killed in Wales about the feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Mary fifteen years ago, and then the said John was 6 years old, which he knew because he was of the household (familiaris) of Walter de Dunstanvill a neighbour of the said Hugh and was often at West Kington co. Wilts, where he often heard the said John's age recited; he also has a son named Roger who was born about the same feast.

Robert de Cerne agrees, and added that he knew it by the relation of Petronilla mother of the said John, and of Joan his nurse who seven years ago was in his service.

Henry Herberti agrees, and says that on Wednesday in the week of the said feast he was in his house at Dodeston near the said Hugh's manor of Kyngton when report came that the said Petronilla had borne the said John, and he has a son named William who was born on the same day.

Nicholas Lucas agrees, and says he knew it because he married his wife on All Souls day previous, and often in that year spent the night in the house of his friend Adam Ive at Kington in going to and from Bristol, and often heard tell of the age of the said John.

William Bayllemunt agrees, adding that he knew it because Richard his brother was born three days before the said feast, and friends of his were killed with the said Hugh.

Reginald Burel agrees, and he knew it because Reginald his brother, a monk of Stanle, was born on the day of the Holy Trinity following.

Richard de Shefton agrees, and he knew it because he was with Henry de Aulton then steward of William le Fort, brother of the said Hugh, at Wodemeresthorn, co. Surrey on Tuesday in that week of Whitsuntide when the news came; and his own mother died at the feast of St. John the Baptist following.

James de Crundewell agrees, adding that he knew it by the relation of trustworthy men at West Kington shortly after the said Whitsunday, and he had a son named James who was born 8 days before.

Simon de Mordon agrees but does not recollect as to the day; he was with William de Calne the subescheator of Wilts fifteen years ago when, immediately after the death of the said Hugh, he seized the manor of West Kington into the king's hand, and it was found by inquisition that the said John, whom he saw with his mother, was 6 years old.

John de Bluntesdon agrees, and says that he knew it because his sister Nazarena was married on All Souls day previous in the same year at Tuderinton near West Kyngton, where the aforesaid John was brought up.

Roger de Bury agrees, and says he knows it by the relation of trustworthy men of Yatton and Kyngton, and added that he was attending the business of Patrick de Cadurcio on the day that the said Hugh was killed, and learned that the said John was 6 years old.

William Whytsand agrees, and says he knows it by the relation of his mother then living near West Kington, and that his brother Richard was born 15 days before the said feast.

44. AVELINA THE WIFE OF EDMUND THE KING'S BROTHER, daughter and heir of William sometime earl of Albemarle.

Commencement of a writ to the escheator ———— Edw. I.

Proof of age (undated).

Ralph de Bray, knight, says that the said Avelina was 14 on the day of SS. Fabian and Sebastian last, and he knows it because she was in his keeping (custodia) when he was warden of the castle of Scarbrok, and was then 5 or 6, and 9 years have elapsed since he restored that castle to the said countess his lady.

Geoffrey de Fanencurt says the same, for his lady, Amice countess of Devon, grandmother of the said Avelina, related it to him.

The prior of Thueyt says the same, for the said earl was patron of that house, and in his register of Martyrs was written the nativity of the said Avelina and of other children of the earl, and she was brought up in that house.

William de Kyleby, canon of the same priory, agrees with the prior.

John de Meaus says the same, for he lived (stetit) with the earl, and last Whitsunday twelve years were completed since he died, and the said Avelina was 1½ year of age.

Stephen de Ostewik and Stephen de Hedon agree with the said John.

John de Camberton agrees, and added that he is dwelling (manens) near the manor of Brustewik where she was born, and recollects her birth.

John de Berklhou agrees, and added that he was the said earl's chamberlain, and well recollects her birth.

Henry de Osenton agrees, for he was in the earl's service at Osenton and well recollects.

John de Fitling agrees with John de Meaus, for a daughter of Adam de Sancto Martino, knight, his neighbour, was born three weeks before.

Simon de Lund agrees, for he was then dwelling (manens) near the manor of Brustewik.

The manor was held by the said Baldwin of the earl of Winchester in chief by homage and service of 40*s.* to whom the wardship and marriage of the heir ought to pertain (and not to the said John de Britannia or the king); but the manor is of the honour of Brittany and paid 10*s.* yearly to the count of Brittany for the guard of the castle of Richemond, and the heirs owe two attendances yearly at the turn of Badburham which is in the king's hand and they are worth 4*s.* if default is made. I.

IRELAND. Inq. taken at Dublin, Monday before St. Gregory the Pope, 8 Edw. I.

Ardneshylach. Lands &c. (unspecified) were held by the said John on the day he died of the gift of Sir John son of Thomas, and upon his death the said Geoffrey entered and had good seisin. But Richard de la Rokele, then justiciary of Ireland, ejected him, and seized them into the king's hand and for this cause:—The Lord John, king of England, gave to Sir Thomas, son of Anthony, and his heirs in fee farm his lands of Decies and Desmond for 250 marks yearly; he had five daughters, of whom the fifth died without heir; of the others Gerard de Rup' had one to wife, Geoffrey de Norrach another, Stephen de (sic) Archedekne the third, and John son of Thomas the fourth; the said Gerard, Geoffrey and Stephen were against the king in the battle of Kyldare, for which they could not have favour from him for their lands, but John son of Thomas was with the king, and had for his part of the lands a portion yearly, amount unknown, from the exchequer of Dublin. Afterwards the said John crossed the sea twice or thrice to the Lord Edward seeking all the said lands for 500 (sic) yearly, which the Lord Edward granted him, and he had duplicate charters and letters patent, and a writ of seisin to the justiciary of Ireland, who answered that he would give no seisin because the Lord Edward and his council were openly deceived, until he should confer with the Lord Edward's council &c.; but the said John said he would make no delay, but summoned all the free tenants &c. of the whole country, and showed them the king's charter and letter patent, and they did fealty to him; thus he entered into seisin of his own authority and so died seised. The said John used to offer his rent to the barons of the exchequer at Dublin, who refused to receive it because he never had seisin by the justiciary or other bailiffs of the Lord Edward; and for this reason the said justiciary took the lands of Ardneshylach, with all the other lands of Decies and Desmond into the hand of the Lord Edward. The said Geoffrey as brother and next heir of the said John has right to the lands of Ardsylach by the feoffment of the said John son of Thomas.

Endorsed:—It seems he ought to be restored, saving right to the king or anyone, and the king will prosecute him that he may have recovery against his feoffor; and he shall answer when restored without essoin.

374. CHRISTIANA DE FORNIVALL alias DE FURNIVALL.

Writ of plenius certiorari to Richard de Holebrock, the king's steward, on the complaint of the men of William de Eylesford of Burton that they were being distrained by the constable of the king's castle of Rockingham, to pay 75*s.* yearly for the guard of the said castle, 7 Oct. 8 Edw. I.

[NORTHAMPTON.] Inq. Monday before St. Luke, 8 Edw. I.

The said Christiana lately held the barony of Wardon, with 15 knights' fees pertaining thereto, for which she was accustomed to render 75*s.* for the guard of the castle of Rokingham, and when she had collected the money from the said fees she sent it to her own manor of Burthone, of another tenure, as her nearest manor to the castle, to be paid to the constable. After her death the said barony with other her lands &c. descended to Christiana and Agnes wives of Sir William and Sir John le Latimer, as her heirs; and the said William and John his brother for seven years have not sent the 75*s.* to the reeve of Burthon, so that the said men have been distrained by the constable, wherefore they have prayed the said William and John to levy the money from the said fees and acquit them, but they have done nothing. The said men have enquired who held the said fees, and have sought and received the following, viz.—

Cukenho and Harewedone. 5*s.* from Nicholas de Cukenho.

Isham. 5*s.* from Henry de Isham.

Suleby. 5*s.* from the abbot of Suleby.

Sydeston. 13*s.* 4*d.* from Robert de Waufre and his parceners.

Audewyncele. 2*s.* 6*d.* from Henry de Audewyncele.

Which sums this year they refuse to pay, and for seven years the men of Burthon have unjustly paid 44*s.* 2*d.* for the said William and John. Who hold the remaining fees, and whether the said William and John have collected the money, is unknown to the jury, but the said William and John have paid nothing to the men of Burthon, nor anything of the said 75*s.* of the guard of the castle.

Endorsed:—Let the men have peace and let it be enquired who hold these fees.

Writ to Richard de Holebrok, to enquire who hold the abovesaid fees, and who ought to pay the money, 10 Nov. 8 Edw. I.

[NORTHAMPTON.] Inq. Wednesday, 3 March, 11 Edw. I.

Lady Christiana de Furnivall having been many times distrained at Wardon by the bailiffs of the said castle for the said guard, caused the said 75*s.* to be levied yearly from the said 15 fees, and transmitted to Burton to satisfy for the guard of the said castle by the hands of her bailiff there. After her death the bailiffs of the castle caused the same to be levied for eight years from the men of the manor of Burton who formerly were of the said Christiana and afterwards of William de Eylisford, until by the king's writ they obtained peace from that exaction, and for three years that annual guard has remained unpaid. The manor of Burton is not of the barony of Wardone, nor bound to contribute anything for that guard; the heirs of the said Christiana ought to levy the said annual guard from the said fees and pay it to the keeper of the castle, and if that guard should be in arrear, the king's bailiffs there ought and were accustomed to distrain in the manor of West Wardone, which is the chief manor of the barony. William and John le Latymer have yearly collected the said guard and detained it, excepting what the men of Burton received (as abovesaid).

The following hold the said fees:—

LINCOLN; OXFORD. Sythestan, Wyleby and Ouneby, co. Lincoln, and Wroxstan, co. Oxford. 4 fees held by Sir Robert de Waufre, the prior of Wroxston, Roger de Neuville and John Spigot, who ought to render 20s. yearly for the said guard.

NORTHAMPTON. Harewedon and Cugeho. 1 fee held by William son of Nicholas de Cugeho, who ought to render 5s. yearly.

Hysham. 1 fee held by Henry son of Henry de Hisham, who ought to render 5s. yearly.

Soleby. 1 fee held by the abbot of Soleby, who ought to render 5s. yearly.

Audewincle. $\frac{1}{2}$ fee held by Henry de Audewyncele, who ought to render 2s. 6d. yearly.

Soleby. $2\frac{1}{4}$ fees of almain ought to be acquitted by the heirs of West Wardon, who ought to render 11s. 3d. yearly.

(Unspecified.) $\frac{1}{4}$ fee held by Alexander de Someresham, who ought to render 15d. yearly.

NORTHUMBERLAND. Inq. Sunday after St. Mark, 9 Edw. I.

John de Eslington, grandfather of John the petitioner who is his heir, enfeoffed Alan de Eslington and Emma his wife of 120a. land in Framlington, who begot the said John the petitioner; and the said Alan and Emma died during the life of the said John the grandfather, who by reason of the minority of John the petitioner took him and that land into his wardship ; and because he held the manor of Eslington of the king in chief, after his death the escheator took the manor of Framlington as well as that of Eslington into the wardship of King Henry ; and when John the petitioner was of full age and had seisin by the said king's command, the escheator maliciously kept the said 120*a.* of the land of the said John in the king's hand, saying that that land was weyt ; and it has been in the king's hand for ten years, and is not worth to the king more than 8*s.* yearly because it lies sterile and uncultivated.

468. RICHARD ATTENOK alias ATTHENOK; and JOHN LE FERRON alias DE FERRUN, LE FERRUN.

Writ, 30 March, 11 Edw. I. Inq. (missing.)

Writ, 5 April, 11 Edw. I. Inq. (missing.)

Writ of plenius certiorari, on the petition of Eva late the wife of Nicholas Tregoz, who now holds the manor of Toppingcho, member of the manor of Blunteshale, which Geoffrey Tregos held of King Henry by knight's service, showing that the said Geoffrey after the death of Robert Filleol, who held the manor of Toppingho of him by knight's service, seized the same into his hand as wardship, and because he did waste in the woods of the manor, which is within the bounds of the forest of Essex, the king took the same into his hand and committed it to Queen Eleanor, who afterwards gave that wardship and marriage to Richard de Ewell, deceased, who made divers alienations to the disherison of the said Eva and of the heirs. 30 Aug. 11 Edw. 1.

[Essex.] Inq. Sunday the morrow of St. Edmund the king, 12 Edw. I.

Thoppinghoe. John de Ferrun held nothing of the king in chief in demesne as of fee on the day he died, but one Baldwin Filiol who held the manor of Thoppinghoe of one Nicholas Tregos, lord of Bluntishal, by service of $\frac{1}{4}$ knight's fee, demised the manor to the said John le Ferrun and Margery his wife for 25 years, within which term the same John and Margery purchased 60*a.* land in the said manor of the demesnes of the said Baldwin, to them and their heirs; afterwards the said John died, and the said Margery remaining in seisin of the said 60*a.* as of fee, and of the residue of the manor for the term of years, married one Richard Atthenok, and they held the same for a long time; and afterwards the said Richard so wrought with the said Margery that they jointly rendered to the said Baldwin the said 60*a.*, of which the same Baldwin had previously enfeoffed the said John le Ferrun and Margery, on condition that he should enfeoff the said Richard of other 60*a.* land of the demesnes of the same manor. And thus the said Baldwin enfeoffed the same Richard and his heirs only, and the other 60*a.* previously obtained by the said John le Ferrun and Margery he assigned to the said Richard and Margery until the end of the term of years aforesaid. And afterwards the said Baldwin fell ill and the said Richard procured that the same Baldwin, being helpless in his bed and non compos mentis, changed the said term of years to a term of the life of either of the said Richard and Margery, and delivered them seisin by a glove, such as he then could do, for he died three days after; and the said Richard and Margery held the manor thus until the death of the said Richard during the said term of years. Thus Richard Atthenoke was seised in his demesne as of fee of 60*a.* land only in Thoppinghoe, and held them of the heirs of the said Baldwin by service of a pair of white gloves price $1\frac{1}{2}d.$, and by doing to the chief lords of the fee 4*s.* yearly.

Hugh, son of the said Richard, is his next heir, and of full age.

The residue of the manor is held of Eva late the wife of John Tregos, who holds the manor of Bluntishal by service of $\frac{1}{4}$ knight's fee, and who ought to have the wardship of the manor of Thoppinghoe by reason of the minority of Thomas son and heir of the said Baldwin, who is aged 14 years.

[DERBY.] Inq. Thursday after St. Gregory the Pope, 12 Edw. I.

Wormhull, &c. as above.

The jury have never seen the abovesaid serjeanty in the king's wardship when the heir was within age, but the heir of whatever age had his father's estate. One Maud, daughter of William de Wytthull, who holds such a serjeanty, was in the king's wardship and was sold to Robert de Melner for 20 marks by the bailiff of the Peak, and Nicholas son of Robert Folejamb, who holds such a serjeanty, is in the king's wardship, and was sold to Henry del Medue by the king's escheator, but by what right they know not.

Return (undated) by the escheator, that he had delivered the lands held by serjeanty or by farm of the king to William Folegaumbe to answer for the issues of the same if the wardship should pertain to the king, because he could best keep those lands; and as to the wardship, it does not appear to him that any one of those parts holding his lands by such service, ought to be in the king's wardship before the time of Sir Roger Lestrangle, bailiff of the Peak, who sold the wardship of the abovesaid Maud to Robert Melner; and he (the present escheator) sold the wardship of the abovesaid Nicholas to Henry del Medue for 50 marks to the king's use, with the assent of the said Thomas, because the said Sir Roger had done so before.

The marsh is held by the same tenure as the king's men in Orford hold, from whom the king has neither wardship nor marriage, nor anything after the death of their ancestors but fealty only, and relief as much as they pay in yearly rent. BUCKINGHAM. Proof of age (undated).

Robert de Stok says the said Geoffrey was born at Chelmundescote between the Gule of August and the feast of St. Laurence, and at that term was 21, which he knows because the father of the said Geoffrey died about Whit Sunday four years ago, and an inquisition was then made which said that the said Geoffrey was 17.

William de Lyngenere agrees, for he married his wife at the Gule of August twenty-one years ago, and three or four days afterwards the said Geoffrey was born.

Thomas de la Waude agrees, for he was one of the jurors of the aforesaid inquisition, and he was in the service of the wife of Hugh de Dunsterr, who carried the said Geoffrey from the font in the church of Soleburi, and was then present.

Ralph de Leteburn agrees, for he was in Soleburi when he was baptized.

Ralph de la Mare agrees, for a handmaid who was with the mother of the said Geoffrey when he was born was in his service for five years and often certified of the age; and he married his wife in the same year.

Luke de Coblinton agrees, for on his return from across the sea he found his father dead, and did homage to the said Geoffrey's father on the day he was born, and it was between the said two feasts so many years ago.

John de Dagenhal agrees, and knows his age by that of a son of Ralph de Mare.

Warin de Brakenham agrees, for the son of Peter de Chelmundescote was of the same age and in his wardship, and half a year ago he restored him his land.

Simon Richer agrees, for he has a son of the same age.

John Michel agrees, for he sold to the said Geoffrey's father a mill half a year before he was born, and never received any money.

Nicholas Ambroys agrees, for his own wife lay in childbed when the said Geoffrey's mother was churched (purificata), and his daughter then born was of such an age last autumn.

John Mayn agrees, for he has a son born on the same night, and he was present when the mother was churched.

William le Somenur and Roger del Brok agree, and know it from the aforesaid inquisition.

John la Warde agrees, for his brother Henry is a week older.

Robert le Bor agrees, for his brother William is a year older.

Diveleston. The manor (extent given) jointly held by the said Thomas with Lucy his wife, by the enfeofment of Simon de Diveleston, father of the said Thomas, of the king in chief by service of $\frac{1}{3}$ knight's service, so that the said Lucy ought to hold the manor for life by the said service, rendering to the heirs of the said Simon after the death of the said Thomas, 1 mark yearly as acknowledgement (nomine recognitionis).

Hecham. The manor (extent given) held by the said Thomas of Sir Robert de Sutevill and Eleanor his wife by service of 6*d.* yearly, and rendering 1 mark yearly to Sir Hugh de Euer for suit of the mill of Crekkelawe, 2*s.* for repair of the pond of the mill of Ponteland, 15*d.* for cornage, 11*s.* 1*d.* to Lady Yda, late the wife of Robert de Nevill for life, and 4*s.* to the nuns of Newcastle-upon-Tyne; and he had 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. rent from the abbot of Newminster (novi monasterii) for a messuage and 1 carucate land.

Writ, on the complaint of Lucy late the wife of the said Thomas that the escheator had ejected her from lands &c. which she held jointly with the said Thomas, commanding an enquiry what lands &c. she so held, 26 May, 18 Edw. I.

NORTHUMBERLAND. Inq. Tuesday after the octave of Holy Trinity, 18 Edw. I.

Hydesley. 13*l.* 13*s.* 7*d.* of land, rent and mill, jointly held of Walter de Edelingham, by his enfeofment to the said Thomas and Lucy and their heirs or assigns, by service of 2*d.* yearly for all service for ever.

Petition from William Tyndale, next heir of the said Thomas, praying for a better inquisition, for in the manor of Diveleston the said Thomas purchased to himself and his heirs 200*a.* wood and a messuage and 19*a.* land, of which the inquisition made makes no mention: in Heggeleye he alone purchased the 13*l.* land to him and his heirs by good charter, and after 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ years purchased a charter to himself and his wife, without changing any estate: and of Sir Walter de Huntercombe he purchased 10*l.* land and more to him and his heirs, whereof the lady retains the charter, and of which the inquisition makes no mention.

And as for the manor of Dyveleston he prays that seisin may not be rendered to the said Lucy, for Simon de Dyveleston, his uncle, held that manor in chief of the king by homage and $\frac{1}{3}$ knight's fee, and gave it to Thomas his son and heir in marriage with Lucy his wife, without the king's consent, without that the said Thomas in the life of his father did homage or service to the king, but he did so after his father's death as his son and heir. For those who hold in chief cannot alienate their lands without the king's leave, as the said Simon did, for thus the king would lose wardships and marriages of those lands. (French, undated.)

Writ de plenius inquirendo upon certain allegations made by William de Tyndal, kinsman and heir of the said Thomas, against the inquisitions made concerning lands of which the abovesaid Lucy asserts that she was jointly enfeoffed with the said Thomas, 20 June, 18 Edw. I.

Corbrig. The said Thomas and Lucy had common in the wood of Corbrig' on either side of the water of Dyvils', for taking all manner of estovers by the view of the foresters of the lord of Corbrig'; and for remitting the said estovers in the woods on the east of Dyvils, the lord of Corbrig' gave the said Thomas about 100*a.* in the wood of Corbrig' called Dunstanwod', to be held to himself and his heirs, for his estovers in the other woods, but whether the soil belongs to the lord of Corbrig' or to the said Thomas, is unknown to the jury, for the men of Corbrig' and Dyvilston have the herbage in common. The said Thomas did homage to the king after the death of his father.

Sir Walter de Hontregom' pledged to the said Thomas 10 librates of land between the waters of Tyne and Derewent in the barony of Bolbek, for 80*l.* and 10 marks to be paid at Michaelmas 1291, and unless he should do this, the said Thomas and Lucy ought to be enfeoffed to them and their heirs; and the said Thomas in his will bequeathed to Lucy his wife the said land, or the money if paid at the said term.

Hygeley. The manor was held by the said Thomas for seven years of Walter de Edlyncham, and afterwards he resigned the term after three years had elapsed, and the said Walter enfeoffed the said Thomas and Lucy jointly of the manor to them and their heirs or assigns. There was no other charter of the manor made to the said Thomas and his heirs.

802. THOMAS BASSET, of Welleham.

Writ, 13 April, 19 Edw. I.

LEICESTER. Inq. Wednesday the feast of St. Mark, 19 Edw. I.

Welham. The manor held of Sir Ralph Basset, of Welledon, in chief by homage and service of $\frac{1}{3}$ knight's fee. He held nothing of the king in chief.

Thomas his son, aged 18 at the feast of St. Peter ad Vincula, 18 Edw. I, is his next heir.

Return from the treasurer and barons of the exchequer to the king (undated and defaced). Having inspected on the king's mandate the rolls concerning knights' fees &c. they do not find that Thomas Basset of Welleham anywhere held of the king, but Ralph Basset of Welledon holds three parts of a knight's fee of the king in chief in the manor of Welleham amongst other fees by barony, of which manor the king's predecessors . . . have had wardship after the death of the said Ralph's ancestors. The said Ralph enfeoffed the said Thomas of the said manor without the king's licence, [nor?] does he show anything whereby it may appear that that demise ought to be accepted; and lest the king should be further cheated of the wardship of the manor, it seems most advisable that the wardship should remain in the king's hand at least until the said Robert [has obtained?] the king's pardon, unless the king wishes to accept that alienation.

C. Edw. I. File 59. (13.)

815. PETER MAULUVEL alias MAULOVEL.

Writ of plenius certiorari, on the complaint of Robert le Cartewright of Gaynesburgh, that the escheator had ejected him from certain lands in Gaynesburgh of which the said Peter had enfeoffed him, asserting that the said Peter was not of sound mind (compos mentis), 13 Aug. 19 Edw. I.

LINCOLN. Inq. Tuesday after St. Michael, 19 Edw. I.

Geynesburg. The said Peter when he enfeoffed the said Robert of the said lands was sufficiently of sound mind, but in what state he now is the jury are ignorant, because he remains in distant parts.

C. Edw. I. File 60. (1.)

816. JOHN SON OF ROBERT ATTE HALLE, of Navenby.

Writ to the sheriff of Lincoln to enquire whether the said John is an idiot, so that the wardship of his lands &c. in Navenby ought to pertain to the king, 28 Aug. 19 Edw. I.

LINCOLN. Inq. made at Ancastré on the eve of St. Matthew, 19 Edw. I.

Navenby. 27a. land held of the lord abbot of Fischam by service of 4s. 9d. yearly, and 40d. to the Templars of Bruar' in alms.

The said John was of good memory until the age of 26, and then on account of a great sickness which he had for a quarter of a year, want of nursing (?) (custodie), hunger, and misery, whilst he lay in that sickness, he was not of good memory, and in no other manner: how it happened the jury know not unless by the will (gratia) of God: he is now 29 years of age. He held the said lands until the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist last, when the king's escheator took them into the king's hand; a year after he was in that sickness, he sold 1a. land to John Knol, and 1a. to Thomas Godewyn and now holds 25a.

C. Edw. I. File 60. (2.)

817. ALICE and JOAN, DAUGHTERS AND HEIRS OF HENRY DE PIDELE.

Writ to the escheator, to take the proof of age of the said Alice and Joan, who were born at Pidele Athalamston, co. Dorset, and say that they are of full age, and seek their lands &c. which are in the wardship (custodia) of Joan their mother, by the king's grant, 12 Sept. 19 Edw. I.

DORSET. Proof of age taken at Dorkecestr', . . . Dec. 20 Edw. I. (defaced.)

John de Muleborne says that the said Alice is 18, and this he knows because he has a daughter Isabel born a fortnight after in the king's second year; and the said Henry her father was his next neighbour. The said Joan is 14, which he knows for he was present with the said Henry at that time at a certain love-day (diem amoris) between the same Henry and the prior of Christchurch.

John Siffriwast says the same, and knows it because his son Simon was born a fortnight after the said Alice, and his wife Edith lifted her at the font in the king's second year; and he was at the said Henry's house when the said Joan was born in the king's sixth year.

Ralph de Rocheford says the same, for he knows of the age of the said Alice from his neighbours, and was present at the house of the said Henry for a love-day against the prior of Christchurch for a contention between them concerning common of pasture, about the feast of St. Margaret in the king's sixth year, on which day the said Joan was born.

Thomas Petevin says the same, for he was brought up from infancy with the said Henry and was there when the said Alice was born in March in the king's second year, and the said Joan was 14 at the feast of St. Margaret last, which he knows because he was in the said Henry's service when she was born.

John de Cheselborne says the same and knows it from neighbours who were present.

Philip Harang and Richard de Musters agree with John de Cheselborne.

John le Someter agrees, and Alice his wife lifted the said Joan from the font.

Geoffrey le Waleys agrees, and knows it from a certain writing made between him and the said Henry concerning $3\frac{1}{2}$ a. meadow which he then granted to the said Henry to farm.

Adam Friday agrees, and knows it because his daughter was then brought up with the said Henry's wife.

Nicholas Cole agrees.

William Jurdan says that the said Alice was 16 and more in March last, and Joan 14 on the feast of St. Margaret last.

C. Edw. I. File 60. (3.)

818. WILLIAM SON AND HEIR OF JOHN DE HARDREDESHILL alias HARDREDESHULL.

Writ to the escheator, to take the proof of age of the said William, who was born in the county of Lincoln, as he says, and seeks his lands &c. which are in the wardship of John de Monte Alto, 24 Oct. 19 Edw. I.

Return (from the escheator) that he had warned John de Monte Alto to be present, who came not, but a letter patent from him was shown, that he had restored the lands &c. to the said William, and quit claimed.

LINCOLN. Proof of age, Monday before St. Edmund the King and Martyr, 19 Edw. I.

Thomas de Nevill, knight, says the said William was born at Scotton in co. Lincoln, and was 22 at Palm Sunday, 19 Edw. I, which he knows because he was in the service of Sir Philip de Nevill when the said John married Joan the said Philip's daughter and mother of the said William, and when the said William was born, and 18 years ago the said Philip died at Easter, 1 Edw. I, and then the said William was 4 years of age.

John de Bosco, knight, agrees, and knows it because the commonalty of the country (communitas patrie) say he is 22.

John Knight of Nettelham says the same, and knows it because Robert de Scotton, chaplain, who lifted the said William from the sacred font, swore it to him in the word of God (in verbo dei).

Ralph de Stures of Faldingworth, Henry son of Simon de Wadingham, Alan le Clerk of the same, and John Oliver of Hibaldestowe agree with John Knight.

William Kissing of Hibaldestowe agrees, for he was at the burial of Sir Philip de Nevill, grandfather of the said William, where he saw the said William and saw well that he was 4 years of age; in the same year he was impleaded at Lincoln by Ralph Northyby his neighbour.

Simon le Taillur of Appelby agrees, and knows it because Sir John father of the said William about Whitsunday, 2 Edw. I, when the sickness of which he died had hold of him, passed by his house in Appelby, when they spoke of his heir, and then it was said that he had a son and heir named William, who was 5 years of age at Palm Sunday then last past.

Walter le Cu of Crosseby agrees with John Knight, and knows it by the relation of the country.

Richard del Hill of Scotthorn and Robert Beneyt of Wadingham, agree with John Knight.

C. Edw. I. File 60. (4.)

819. PHILIP PAYNEL, BROTHER AND HEIR OF JOHN PAYNEL.

Writ to the escheator to take the proof of age of the said Philip, who seeks his inheritance, as well in the king's hand as in the wardship of Katherine Paynel, his mother, 5 Dec. 19 Edw. I.

WILTS. Proof of age made at Malmesbury on Sunday the feast of St. Swithin, 19 Edw. I. (defective.)

John de Cantebr' (?) says that the said Philip was born at Pyriton in the hundred of Stapel' on the day of the Assumption about the first hour, 53 Hen. III, and was baptized in the baptistry of St. Mary's church, Pyriton, by Richard then vicar, on the morrow at the morning hour (hora matutina). Philip Basset, uncle of the said Philip's mother, who was then at his manor of La Fasteerne, being asked to be godfather sent his friends (familiars) Hugh de Courteney and John de Pyriton to lift him from the font and give him the name of the said Philip Basset, and Agnes then the wife of Roger de Writel' held him and was his godmother. He is certain of the time, for one John le Frie of Pyriton married one Emma at Hockday before the said Philip's birth, and the witness met him leading his wife with a great company and struck one William Champeneys, who was very abusive, heavily on the head with a staff, for which he was heavily amerced in the hundred (court) of Worth, and made great pecuniary amends.

Thomas le Teyeis says that on Friday of Whitsuntide, 50 Henry III, he married Hugina (?) de Chanu, and in the second year after a daughter Joan was born, now 22½, and the said Philip was born in the year following.

Thomas Malreward agrees with the above, except as to the hour which he does not recollect, and knows it because on the day of St. Andrew, 53 Hen. III, a son Andrew was born to him who now is 22 years of age and more.

William de Nevile agrees, for in 53 Hen. III, at Whitsunday was born to him a daughter named Margaret, who in her 15th year was married to one Henry de Stok, and in the following year bore a daughter named Alice who is now 6 years of age and more.

John le Frie agrees, for on the morrow of Hockday, 53 Hen. III, he married Emma his wife, who in the following year on the morrow of the Annunciation bore a daughter Alice; the said Philip was born at the (feast of the) Assumption following those nuptials.

Geoffrey de Marisco agrees, for he is a near neighbour and his son Robert was born at the feast of St. Peter ad Vincula, 53 Hen. III, and the said Philip at the feast of the Assumption following.

William Crups agrees, for one John Balle married Juliana his kinswoman in 53 Hen. III soon after Easter, and witness attended (ministravit) at the nuptials, and the said Philip was born at the (feast of the) Assumption following.

Philip de Forde agrees, adding that the aforesaid vicar who baptized the said Philip was born at Cirencestre, and that one John de Quernakere his special companion married one Emma de Hanedon before Whitsunday in 53 Hen. III, and the said Philip was born as abovesaid.

John de la Rochel' agrees, for the said John de Quernakre, his next neighbour, married his wife in the said year, as abovesaid.

Elias de Mandevil and Henry de la Burn agree

Nicholas de Garderoba
